How to Access to E-Resources from Off Campus?

On campus, you can access to the library electronic resources through computer terminals located in the Library and all computers in both campuses.

Off campus, you can access to the library electronic resources by connect to the AU’s modem or set up the AU’s proxy on youe web browser. The detail as follow;

1. Dial-up to the AU’s modem pool
   This is the best option as you get access to all the Library electronic resources as if you were on campus. When your modem connects to the AU modem dial-up service from off-campus, your computer logs into part of the University network. You can then access electronic resources without needing to enter any login details.

2. Use AU’s proxy
   The AU’s proxy provides the library electronic resources from off campus access. Please find method how to set the Au’s proxy on your computer by:-
   - Open Internet Explorer
   - Set up AU’s proxy step by step
     - Click on Tools → Internet Options → Connections → LAN Setting
     - Tick on [Use automatic configuration script]
     - Put address in the box: http://au.edu/proxy.pac
     - Then click OK
   - Or you can see for Example at http://www.library.au.edu/proxy/index.html

   Absolute Timeout:
   Not more than 3 hours/Day
   45 hours/ Month.
